Special Invitee:

- Antenatal woman.
- Eligible couple.
- TB survivor.
- Cancer survivor.

Role of JAS in enabling quality service delivery:

The Jan Arogya Samiti will—

1. Facilitate and support AB-HWC team to ensure provision of quality healthcare services for all and ensure accountability.

2. Ensure that the Citizen Charter at AB-HWCs displays the list of services that are provided at the facility. The JAS will particularly highlight the preventive and promotive services that are provided at AB-HWC—ranging from screening for chronic diseases, vision, hearing; and services available for-pregnant and lactating women, children and adolescents; and conduct of yoga/wellness sessions.

3. Ensure provision and maintenance of safe drinking water, quality diet, litter free premises, clean toilets, clean linen, uncluttered waiting area, good security, bio medical waste/regular waste disposal and clear signage systems at the AB-HWC.

4. Ensure that essential medicines and diagnostics are available (as per the Essential Drugs and Diagnostics List for AB-HWC).

5. Promote a culture of user-friendly behavior amongst AB-HWC staff for improved responsiveness and user satisfaction, by their training/orientation/sensitization.

6. Ensure that no user fees or charges are levied for any healthcare services being provided in AB-HWC.

7. Ensure by pro-active efforts and regular follow-up, that those from poor and vulnerable sections of community do not face any hurdles in availing healthcare services at AB-HWC and ensure that services are not denied to anybody who visits the AB-HWC.

8. Encouraging use of social media and digital communication, ensure home/community level follow-up of patients discharged from hospitals to reduce the risk of complications and re-admissions.

9. Undertake regular review and monitoring to ensure that the facility achieves the quality standards set for the AB-HWC.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Goa.
